Creative Floors

BEAUTIFULLY GROUNDED

Flooring is the foundation of any space. It both makes a statement and can guide the rest of one's aesthetic.

Inspired by clients who have a vision that we can create into a reality, we take the time to understand their needs, style, and budget to help them select the best product to suit their homes. This can be a completely virtual experience, or we can meet in our Edwards showroom and design studio

Our curated boutique-style showroom has an inviting presence which provides an array of interactive sample displays. We are very different from our competitors in that we only showcase the finest products. From patterns and color to durability, every consideration is at play. We primarily carry specialty lines of wood flooring, carpeting and a large collection of one-of-a-kind area rugs. We are consistently bringing updated, high-performance products to maintain a leading-edge look.

We offer design services with in-home consultations so that picking the perfect flooring to compliment the style of your home is made seamless; incorporating a timeless look with a mountain feel is one of our specialties.

From selecting the product with our expert design consultants to the final outcome- carried by our own true craftsmen, artisans and among the best in the country installers- Creative Floors thrives in providing every homeowner, builder, designer, and architect with an exceptional experience. Creative Floors showroom: 105 Edwards Village Blvd, A-103, Edwards, CO (Next to Post Office in Edwards!), 970,855,0250, creativefloorsvail.com
